

COPYRIGHT AND GRANTING OF RIGHTS DECLARATION FOR “DHL’s GOT HEART 2018/2019”

The entrant(s) confirm(s) that he/she/they hold(s) all rights in respect of the video to be submitted, that he/she/they has/have unlimited exploitation rights in respect of all parts, that the video is free from any third party rights and that no personal rights are infringed in the event of persons being presented in the video. If one or more people in the video are identifiable, the entrant(s) have to ensure that persons in question must agree to the video being published – in case of minors, the consent has to be obtained from the guardian. The entrant(s) shall obtain written consent if so requested. If, nevertheless, third parties make claims on the grounds that their rights have been infringed, the entrant(s) shall hold DHL International GmbH and its affiliates harmless against all claims.

Without limitation in terms of location, time or content, the entrant(s) grant(s) DHL International GmbH and its affiliated companies an exclusive, irrevocable license to use, edit, reproduce, distribute, make available and display the video submitted (or parts of the video) and entry form information without charge, by any medium or method now known or later invented, including without limitation online, to be exercised at our sole discretion throughout the world in perpetuity. As this license is exclusive, entrant(s) is/are agreeing that only DHL International GmbH and its affiliated companies may use the video and entry form information.

The information given by entrant(s) in his/her/their entry (including video content) may be used both internally and externally, in online and offline communication about the competition, promotions of the current competition and future competitions and at the competition finals.

In the event that an entry is selected as a Finalist (‘Regional Finalist’), the entrant(s) irrevocably grant(s) all consents necessary for DHL International GmbH to film them/their charitable cause and to use recordings featuring their image and/or voice in all media throughout the world in perpetuity, including during the Final at the 50 Year Anniversary Roadshow, without the need for payment to the entrant(s).
